

Yeats wins Emerald Golf Club Championship

by Ross Martin (Club Captain) 22-10-2011

Emerald Golf Club 2011 Championships were completed on Saturday with the third and final round of the annual stroke event. In very testing weather conditions, competitors were faced with consistent heavy showers to test the mettle of the contenders and in the end of three rounds congratulations went to:-

- A Grade : Martin Yeats –Club Champion for 2011 winning the A grade gross on 242;
Ken Hill – winner of the A grade nett on 211
- B Grade : Travis Broadway - winner of the B grade gross on 252;
Eddie Klopogge - winner of the B grade nett on 199
- C Grade : Dean Aitken – winner of the C grade gross 287;
Brian McCoy- winner of the C grade nett on 211

This was Martin’s 2nd Club Championship after winning in 2009 and has won the right to represent Emerald G.C. in the VGL Champion of Champions at Portsea on Sunday Nov.6th, also well done to new members Travis, Eddie and Dean playing in their first Club Championships and coming up with a win in their respective categories, Brian winning his 2nd C grade nett in succession after winning this event in 2010 and Ken Hill who played very consistent golf claimed his first A grade nett title.

The third round results for the day were Ross Martin (70) in A grade on a count back from Ken Hill (70), Eddie Klopogge (62) in B grade and Matt Johnson (63) in C grade. Down the line were Wayne Degering (64), Travis Broadway (66), Dave Harvey (67), Peter Jones (68), and Dave Jennings (69) to round out the sub-70 scores. Scoring was surprisingly better than recent events due to the improving course conditions (well done to Barry and the team- as the course is getting better by the week).

Nearest the pins went to Dean Aitken on the 4th (who cruelly displaced his fist pumping dad -Dave Aitken who was more than happy after slotting his ball on the 4th Green) , Travis Broadway on the 7th, Ken Hill 12th and Wayne Degering winning the big bucks and glass on the Pro-pin 18th.
